Watch Yourself Go By...

In your years at Corning High School, many good times and shining moments have happened and will continue to happen to you. As a student, you have contributed your character and personality to the overall feeling of your school. That is what we have tried to capture in this annual--YOU and some of the style and class YOU yourselves have added to the CUHS atmosphere.

1. TERRI SPENCE makes a unique fashion statement.

2. SUZANNE COPELAND displays Cardinal Pride as she marches with the Cardettes in the Homecoming parade.

3. CSFers GINA TURRI,

SUZANNE COPELAND, and TIFFANY WYSS make friends with Ronald while en route to the Ashland Shakespearean Festival.

4. ERIC LARSEN ponders the purpose of physics.

5. Fighting for yards is JV Card RAY ARANA.

6. PAUL RAMIREZ performs an electrifying Angus Young impersonation in a class air band competition.

7. Marching in with the Cardinal Band is TRACI BLANTON.

6. Cute freshman MORGAN WELLMAN's face tells us he's ready for a break.

7. Caught by surprise in Physics is LESLAY CHOY (and by the way, is that Seventeen she's reading? Or is it Physics Weekly?)

Watch Yourself Grow...

The growing up process is important not only physically, but also academically and socially.

Growing up can be a tough job, but it's more often a lot of fun, as many of the pictures here show. That "school's what you make it" attitude has made Corning High School an academic leader. Students at CUHS seem to know the perfect recipe for a well-balanced school life--hard studying with just enough "goofing off" to make it all a fantastic growing experience.

1. CRYSTAL SPALETTA asks us why higher math must exist.

2. Enjoying everyone's favorite subject is JOHN BROGDEN.

3. CARLA CRAIN works on a straddle roll in tumbling class.

4. Letters brighten the day for JAMI KERR and STACI ROGERS.

Varsity Football Senior

Homecoming was filled with big moments for many of you. Under the theme "Cards on Safari", the Cardinal varsity caged the Tigers from Oroville, Tonya Murchland began her reign as Homecoming Queen, and an on-the-ball freshman class produced a winning class float.

1. Captain KENNY GLEASON tackles the complicated task of crowning the queen, TONYA MURCHLAND.

2. The real stars of Homecoming, the GOLDEN GRADS of 1936, are introduced by CHARLOTTE WOLF.

3. Junior princess TAMMY JONES and escort JOHN BROGDEN ride down the parade route.

4. Gasping in wonder at the halftime festivities are a group of PEP SQUAD members.

3. Longtime director of homecoming festivities, Golden Grad CHARLOTTE WOLF accepts an award of appreciation for her many years of hard work.

2. Victory in the class float competition is a source of pride and excitement for the class this year. The honor went to the FRESHMAN CLASS. Here, their accomplishment is seen barreling down the parade route.

4. The VARSITY PEP SQUAD takes a moment to cool off while waiting to march down Solano Street.

5. Drum major DAVID GIRDLER takes the regiment with a firm hand.

6. The JV CHEERLEADERS concentrate on

1. It's said that CUHS owns one of the greatest Homecoming celebration around. Part of this success is due to community participation.
Here, one Corning

an affectionate hug RAY ARANA is receiving from an Oreville opponent.

Watch Yourself Shine

1. TAWNYA POTTER gives the camera that Cover Girl smile.

2. Beware the evil mystery hand that lurks within the depths of the offset darkroom.

3. Several juniors peer into the camera's eye, trying to discover the identity of the man (or woman) behind the lense.

4. Friends are an important part of school. Here, GREY HEMPING and STACY GRIFFIN show the joy of friendship.

5. As the Cardettes march into Cardinal Stadium, LESLEE WELLS can be seen flashing a grin.

6. Freaking everyone out on Halloween are the BOO TWINS (and you thought it was STACI ROGERS and JAMI KERR).

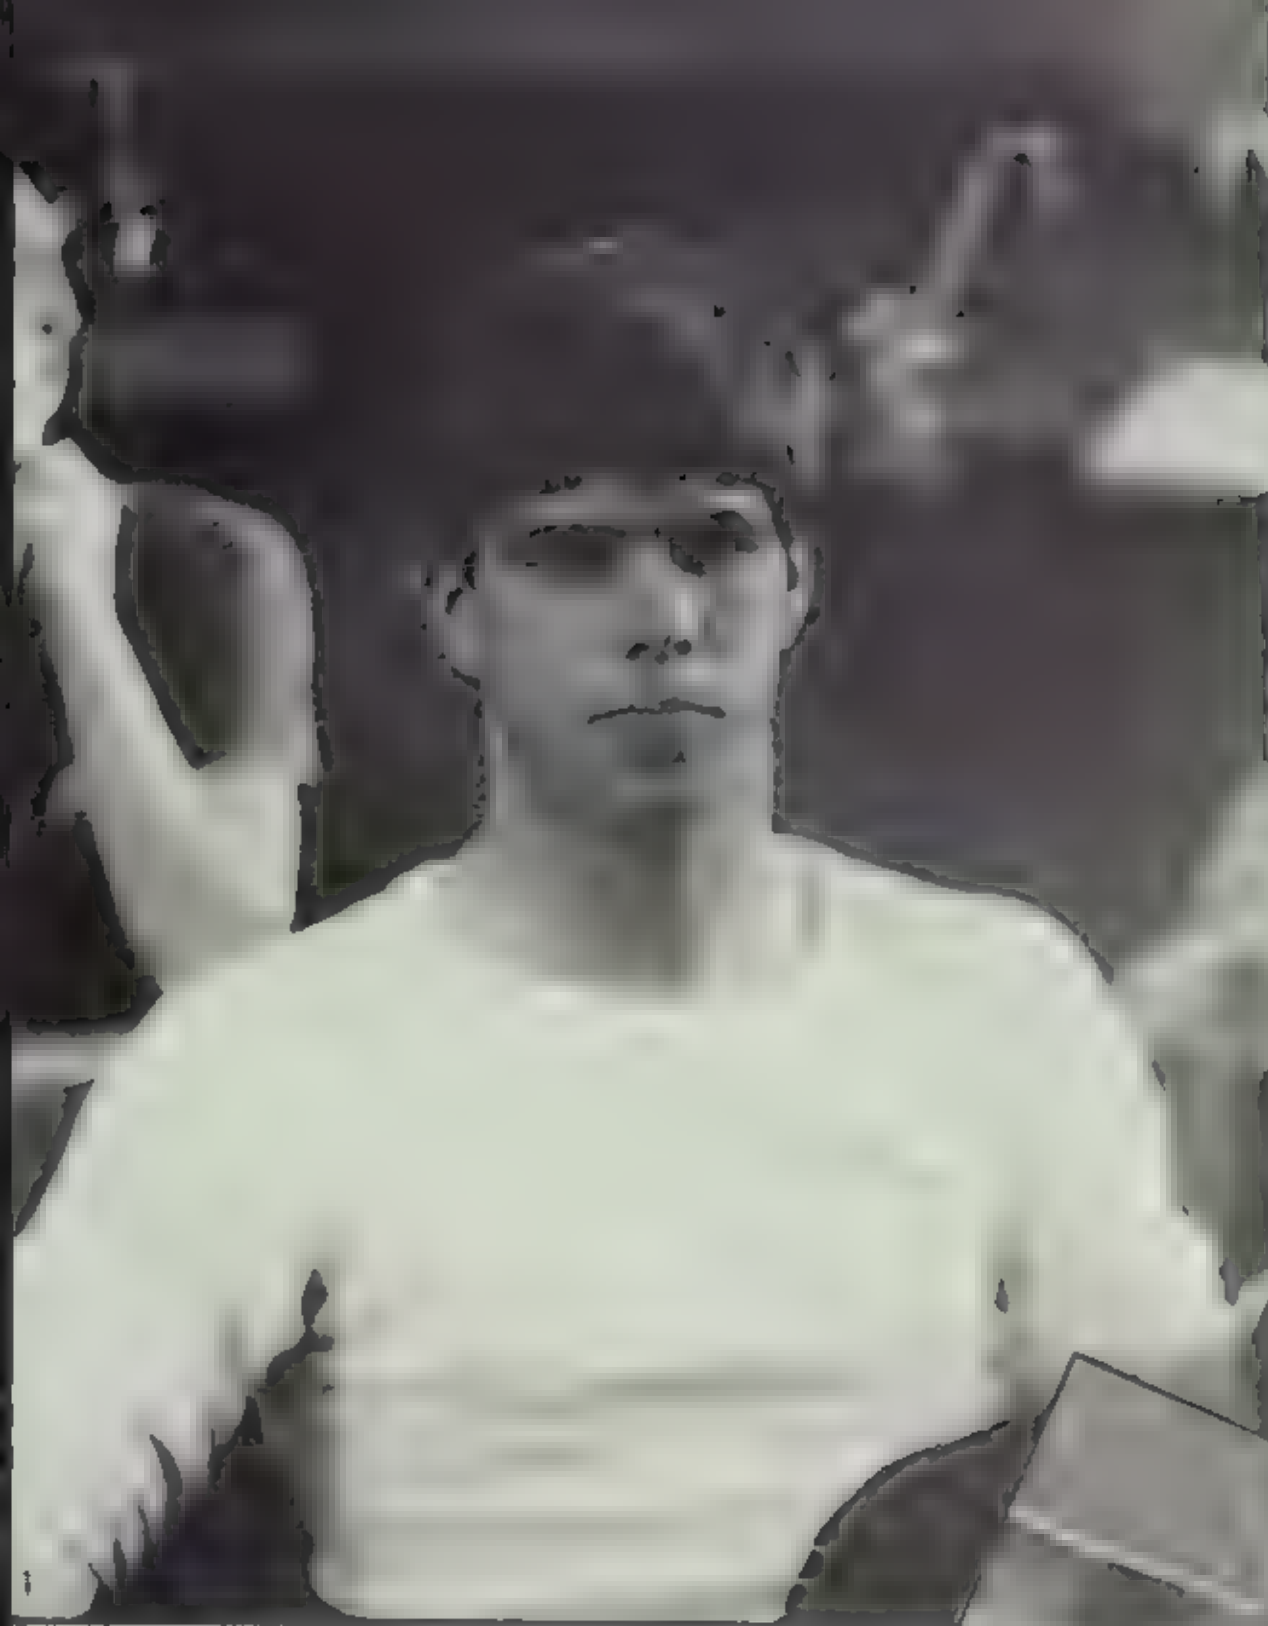

7. WENDY SMITH lends her English expertise to classmate LESLAY CHOY.

4. MICHELLE BALES gives us a look that clearly says, "Don't EVEN take a picture."
 5. DAVID WANIS is seen strolling about the halls.

6. One of the many groups seen congregating at lunchtime are KYLE FOX, JEFF CUNHA, TIM FOX, BRYAN HAYES and PAT DAILY.

1. 'Don't mess with JEFF SMITH--he's one bad dude.

2. SONYA SCHROEDER plays photography games.

3. JENNI STOVER is obviously engrossed in a teacher's interesting lecture.

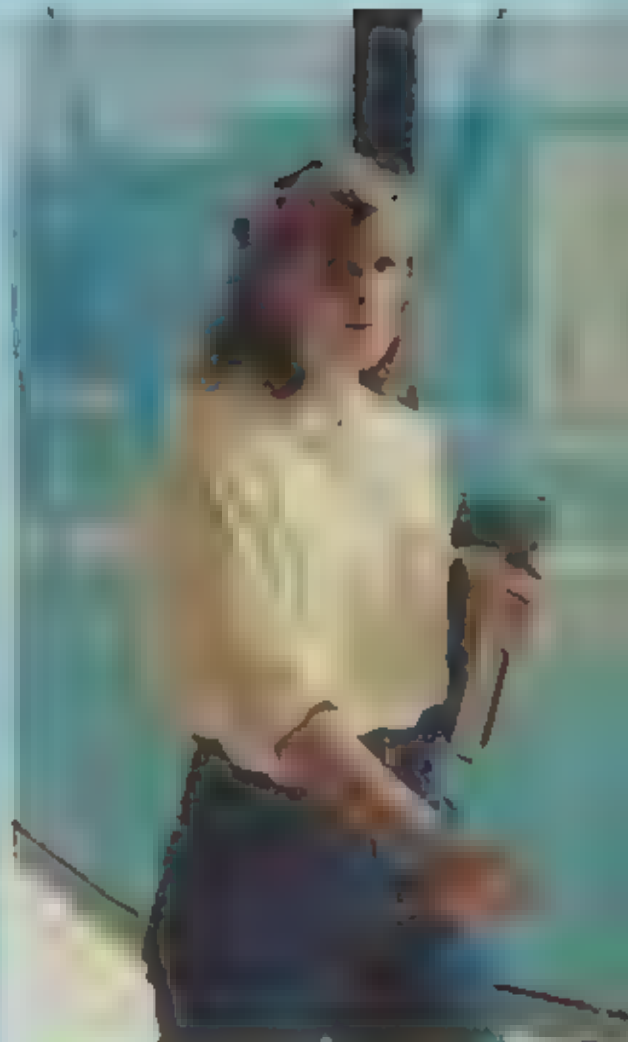

Watch Yourself Celebrate

You don't need a special occasion to celebrate. Students at CUHS know the importance of celebrating life itself. So watch yourself celebrate ... life!

1. Pretty LAURA SMITH gives us a dreamy look.

2. Bringing a new meaning to the word "cool" is senior DARYL ROSSEN.

3. You can tell just how busy CHERI PETERSON is by the way she "hustles" to her classes.

4. Seniors enjoy study time in A.P. English.

5. ERIK HOHENSTEIN is fascinated by the gorgeous scenery on the road to Ashland, Oregon.

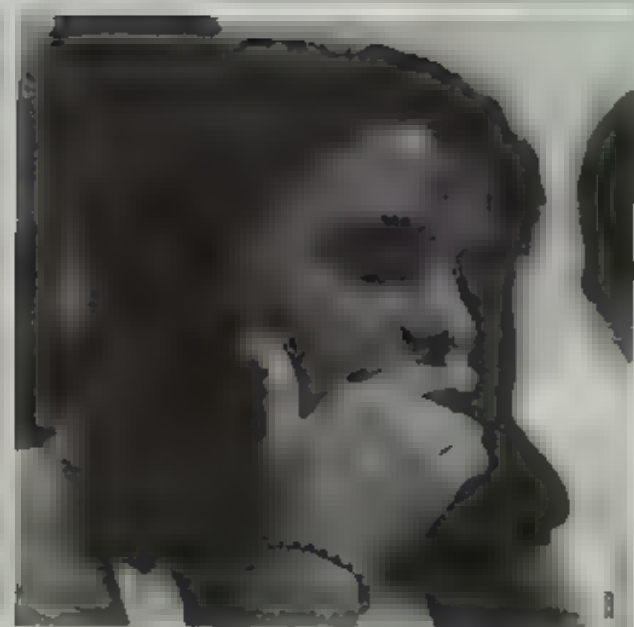

6. NANCY RAY plays amateur hairstylist on SHANNON HASSAY.

7. RICHARD ZIMMERLEE finds himself defenseless against the strength of TAMMY McFALL.

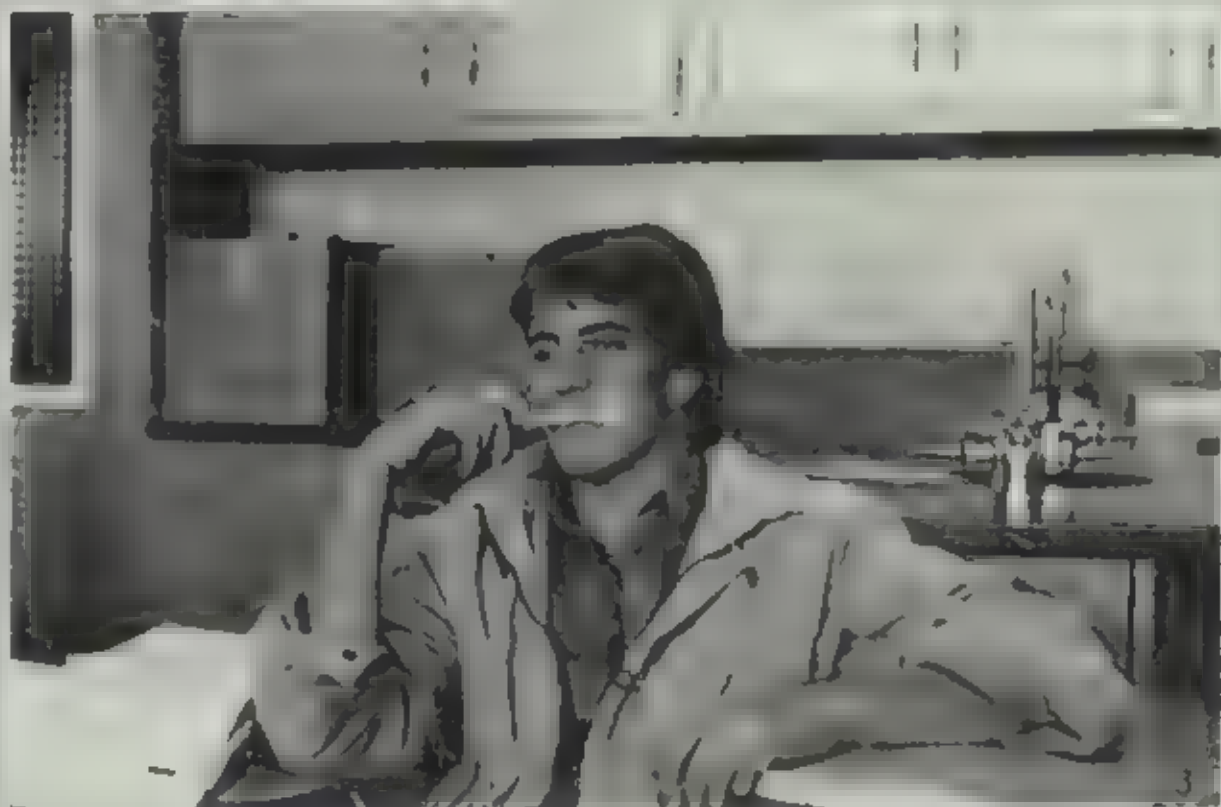

Every year there are new and different trends that sweep through Corning High School. Each of you seems to take these trends and adapt them to suit your own personal image, be it punk, prep, new wave, or heavy metal. There is always the situation of taunting and criticizing between groups with different tastes, but the truth is that without these different looks around school, our campus would be a dull, colorless place to be.

Show your colors!

1. Friendship bracelets came onto the scene in a big way in the fall, beginning with the hockey team's red, black, and white style. Here, NANCY RAY displays one of these Hockster Originals.

2. ALYSSA CLARK has turned last year's basic, one-eyed style into a new, cool attitude statement.

3. Breath-brushes, sold by the Drama Club and Theatre Arts groups, captured the fancy of DON MASSIE, who wouldn't be caught without one.

1. Are YOU in this picture?
Science Club

was revived with much enthusiasm this year.

2. As LeaANN MOORE will tell you, any t-shirt that has something to tell you is cool.

3. KENNY GLEASON, in classic Vuarnets and pushed-up sleeves, shows the world what the word "suave" means.

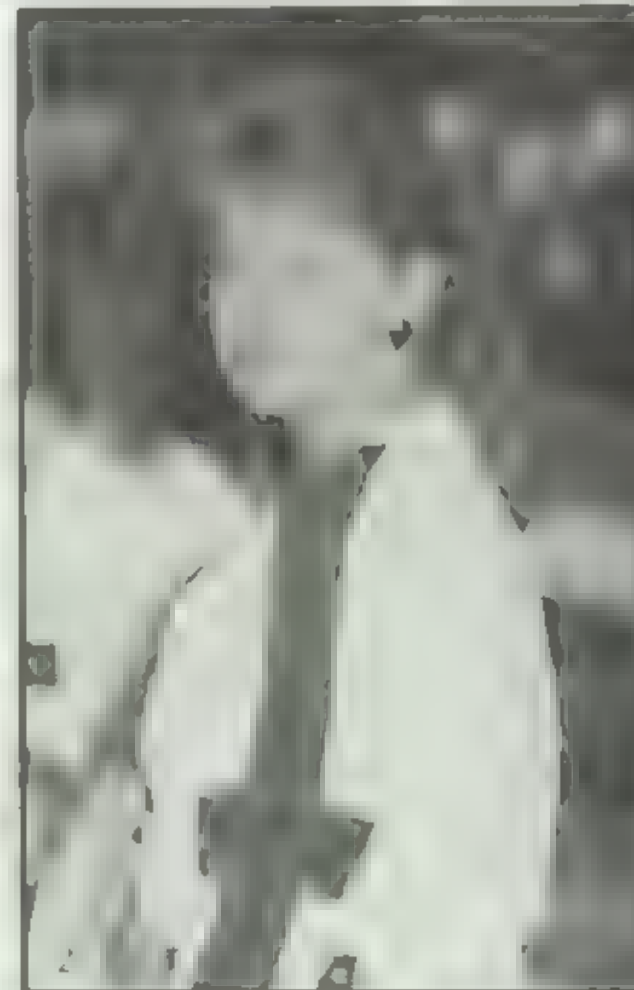

4. TAWNYA POTTER is shown here in a figure-flattering Halloween number.

1. Lately, the trend has been toward shorter, more clean-cut looks for guys. CORY GROOTVELD wears a perfect example.

2. Doesn't CHARMAINE BUTLER's hair look gorgeous? It's yet another trend of 1986-87--the banana barette.

3. Mad scientist KRIS PURYEAR demonstrates the latest in hand and eyewear.

The Men Behind CUHS

As years pass there are several events that young people remember. One of these events deals with the activities which surround one's high school years. As we look back we remember the good times and have a tendency to not remember the times that were not so great.

I think the key is to be involved with activities that can bring about a good feeling and positive rewards, and to stay away from things with negative rewards. Life itself can be positive if your own attitude toward it is also positive.

To the class of 1987, "Let all of your memories be smiles."

Mike Ford

Vice Principal

EXPERIENCE

1986-87 is a year that we will all remember. For some it is the last year of their high school experience. For others it is the first year. For all of us, this year brought new and different experiences. I hope that most of these were positive. You have had the opportunity of participating in the great tradition of the Corning Cardinals. There is a great deal of pride involved in that Cardinal tradition. Excellence has become an expectation in all aspects of our school experience.

There are stories on the same theme written on clay tablets, papyrus and paper which confirm a verity: you must give before you receive.

The need to nurture is missing on that which is easily attained. It has none of your time and sweat stamped into it. It has little meaning for you.

True satisfaction and value come when you achieve something after an investment of your energy, your heart and soul. It has this worth because you have given of yourself, you have left your commitment impressed into it. That which you must dig deeply to attain, you tend to cherish. It is in the act of remembering and cherishing that you will find a measure of true happiness.

Don Lewis

Counselor

I sincerely hope that the experience that you have had during this year will be a building block for your future success in life. I hope that you have learned to reach out and strive for excellence in all you do. If you have learned this, you have learned a characteristic that will benefit you throughout your life.

I congratulate the class of 87! We all wish each of you the very best of everything! We will really miss you.

In Memory Of Robert M. Buffum

Mr. Robert M. Buffum was the epitome of a high school teacher. His dedication to the students and staff of Corning Union High School was legendary.

For twenty-eight years Mr. Buffum performed many school related chores--from teaching to keeping the clock at basketball games--which he completed with perfection. Mr. Buffum was also an avid fisherman, stamp collector, and navy veteran of World War II. His tales of the latter were famous.

Corning Union High School is very proud of our association with Mr. Robert Buffum. He has left a void on this campus that may never be filled.

He will be missed.

1. The Office is by far the busiest place on the CUHS campus. Between tardies, phone calls and information seeking parents, our secretaries have little time to do tedious things like typing out report cards, delivering messages and collecting attendance slips. This year's Pep Squad was a very diverse group of people, and, while we were not without our problems, I think we will all remember the many good times we've had. Screaming our lungs out at USA Camp, sweating out practices in hot summer sun, cheering on the teams, brainstorming for rallies, and working hard in general, we all learned something about ourselves and about resolving our differences. Many thanks to our advisor, Mrs. Mache. Through hard work, I think we achieved success.

King Swab

The band's hard work really paid off! This year the band had their best halftime shows ever, while combined with the drill team as a flag unit, the band entertained the crowds throughout the football season. After football, the band went to their first serious marching competition. The Las Plumas Band Review, in Oroville, helped them to gain a lot of experience as they competed against large and small schools from all over the state. In January, the band traveled to the annual East-West Shrine Game, in Palo Alto.

Springtime meant parades for the Corning band. They practiced very hard, and performed well at the Chico Pioneer Days Parade, a band review in Sacramento, and took sweepstakes in the Red Bluff Round-Up Parade. Spring also meant a trip to Marriotts Great America. They marched through the park and performed in the town square in front of hundreds of cheering people.

Not all of the band activities were fun. To raise money for these trips the band sold candy bars, to the students and faculty. They also sold Corning Merchant coupon books to the community.

All in all, though, this was a great year to be a member of the Corning Cardinal Marching Regiment. ABOVE: David Girdler leads the band onto the field to begin a halftime show.

DANCE...

the trademark in 87.

The 1986-87 Country Cardette squad was composed of 33 members, with four seniors taking the leadership responsibilities. Tammy McFall captained the team, while Crystal Spaletta was co-captain and Leslay Choy and Shannon Hassay were officers. The four girls shared in warm-up, technique, teaching and choreography duties, as well as shared in the planning of group activities. The credit for the success of this team is largely due to the leadership ability of the four senior girls.

During the fall the Cardettes joined forces with the Cardinal Regiment to produce some great halftime shows. The most memorable was the show that included a high kick number and a marching band and maneuvering routine with flags. Homecoming was another special occasion as the three princesses and the queen were all members of the drill team.

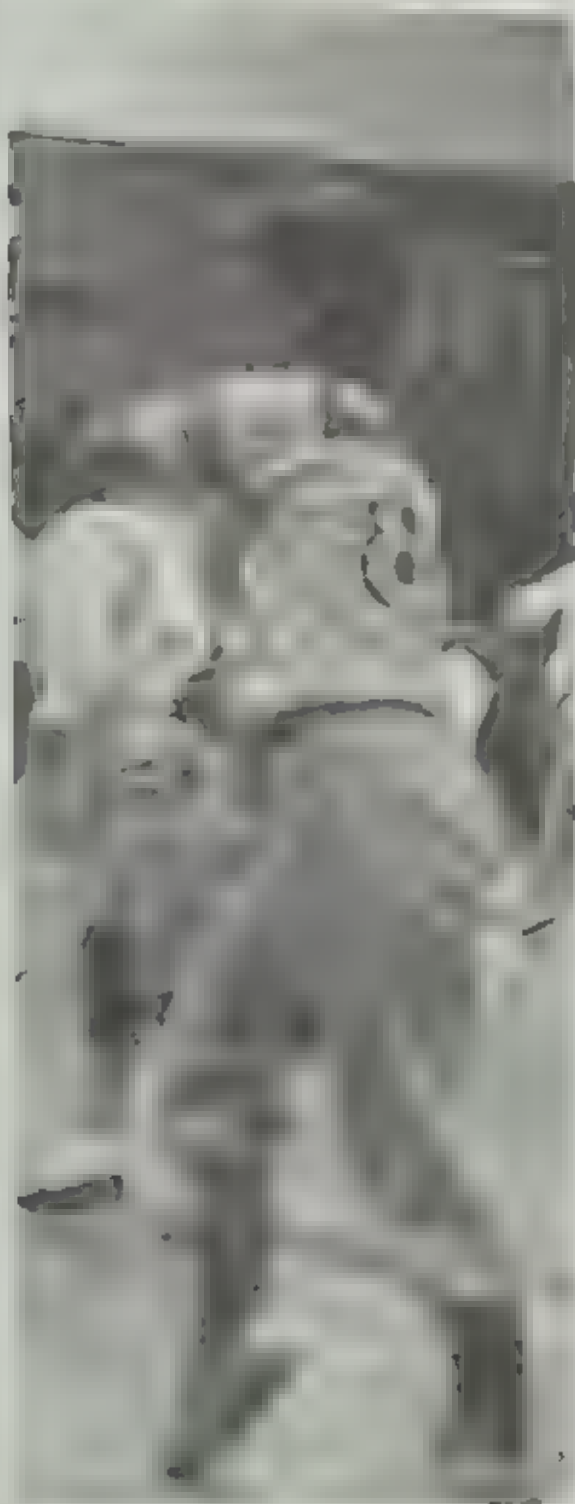

Christmas activities for the team included decorating a tree for Christmas Tree Lane as well as caroling before the secret elf party.

The drill team also competed in the military division at the State Drill Team Competition in San Jose in February. Spring activities included parade competitions, Star Search and the annual dance show.

Each year the Country Cardettes build on the past. The 1986-87 team has set a foundation in dance technique which other teams will build upon.

Our Fearless Leaders...

Our student body officers accomplished many feats. They brought us the right to wear shorts any day of the week except during the winter months. It used to be that students were only able to wear shorts on Fridays. They also have brought a sense of order and seriousness to the student council. What would we do without our fearless leaders.

Cards Win 5 In A Row - New State Record

1. M. Hale has a friendly chat with Coach Burton.

2. C. Langston waves to his adoring fans.

This year started off against Lassen. This proved to be a victorious game, with the Cards winning 20-6. The very next week the Cardinals traveled to Red Bluff only once more to be on top 20-0. The Cards faced Pleasant Valley at home and barely escaped with a 7-6 win. Then tragedy struck. This was against Anderson, a large AAAA team. Corning lost 2-25. Homecoming was next, and the Cards played well and destroyed Oroville 41-14. Corning then played host to Encina. Encina wore out their welcome when the Cardinals lost 7-21. Orland was next on the list. The Cardinals toughened up and beat them 21-6. The next week the Cards traveled to Willows. Unfortunately, bad luck was on their side when they lost 9-15. Corning was not shaken up, because the next week they presented West Valley with a loss of 20-17. The next game was for the WSL championship, for which of course the Cardinals had to beat Gridley, and they did just that by shelling them 27-7. The Cards were back in the playoffs again and it was against Wheatland. It turned out to be a lovely evening and Wheatland was sent home with a 41-14 loss. The AAA championship was the last and the most important game of the season. In the most spectacular football game in Corning history the Cardinals beat Delta High by a score of 20-14, and that set a new state record of five NSCIF championships in a row.

J.V. Birds Fly High

The 1986 Junior Varsity Football Team had the tough job of playing a brutal pre-season schedule. They had to face many powerhouse AAAA schools and were usually a lot smaller than their opposition. They also had to face one of the toughest league schedules in recent years. With coaches Jim Bingham and Phil Rowland at the helm the Cards overcame this great obstacle and pulled out a winning season. They ended the season with a 6-4 record. These players should be a tremendous addition to next year's varsity team and will help carry on the Corning football dynasty.

J.V. Hockey...

NOW INSIDE THE LOCKER ROOM WE ASKED THE GIRLS A FEW QUESTIONS ABOUT THEIR SEASON...

1. Q: "Miss Murphy, are you ready for those Paradise Bobcats?"

A: "CENSORED, yes!"

2. Miss Hemping said she would get back to us.

3. Q: What do you two feel was this hockey season's key to success?

A: Why our finesse, of course.

They

Never Settled For

The Junior Varsity Basketball season has been filled with excitement. After our first loss to Central Valley to open the season, we knew that a strong defense would carry us to the Division Championship, and it did. This team has a lot to be thankful for, but most of all, they can thank themselves because it was their effort and willingness to try harder that carried them to the top. They never settled for second best.

Second Best

A Team To Watch...

The Freshman Basketball team, led by Coach Bingham, had a good year. They finished with an impressive record in Westside league action, which is commendable for a Frosh basketball team since most of the players have not engaged in play with the others. Be sure and stay tuned in following years for these future superstars of basketball. Congratulations to the 1986-87 CUHS Frosh basketball team and their coach.

Varsity Girls Gain Respect

The Varsity Girls Basketball Team gained a lot of respect this year. Not only from other teams, but from the community of Corning. Every game was well attended with people wanting to watch our girls triumph. That they did with several impressive wins over teams like Live Oak and Biggs. The girls traveled to Paradise to take part in the Paradise Tournament, and did exceptionally well, coming out with a third place trophy. They then hosted a multitude of teams, at the Corning Girls Tournament, placing an impressive second place.

Leading the Cardinals in scoring was Shaunna Hassay whose totals came close to 300 points. While Sherrie Messmer averaged a whopping 10 points a game. The defense of the Cardinals can't be overlooked, Chris (Rambis) Sutfin averaged 10 rebounds a game, while Darrel Costello and Tawnya Potter were also exceptional on the court. The remainder of the team filled in well. For first-time coach, Mrs. Lubinsky, it proved to be a great year. Even though the girls didn't make it to the Section Playoffs, they showed a lot of poise and sportsmanship in their grueling defeats. Their courage and pride was more than what could have been asked from them.

After all the games have been played our girls basketball team could hold their heads up high, knowing they did their best. Below: Coach Lubinsky huddles her team up, before the game starts, to give some final instructions.

A Winning Combination

The 1986-87 J.V. Girls' Basketball Team surely made a place for themselves in the "Sports World" at Corning High School. With six players returning for the season, they set out with a lot of hope and determination. Along with all the victories and disappointments, (with the help of Coach Vince Maiocco) this team always walked into a game with even higher expectations of themselves.

Next year's Varsity Team will be gaining seven of the fifteen fine athletes this team has produced. With them on the team, we are looking for a winning record from our next years Varsity.

1. Put your left foot in, put your right foot out, you do the hokey-pokey, and you turn the ball about.

2. "Jennifer, it looks like it's up to you now."

3. "We're ready when you are, Grey."

1. Glen Nye, 177lb wrestler goes for another pin.

2. Tim Ricker squares off against his opponent.

3. Big Chuck VanDoorn works over another opponent.

4. Santos Lucatero goes for the pin for a position in the finals in the Clayton Valley Tournament in the 119lb division.

5. Don Deleray struggles to keep his opponent down in the 112lb class.

Wrestling

This team has been a very successful one, winning all the tournaments and vying for the league and section titles. Yet this team is relatively young with only five seniors and the future looks to be equally successful. I hope that the Wrestling Experience has been as exciting for each athlete as it has been for me. The challenges of life are not unlike those which an athlete must face through the course of a season. May those that have endured and enjoyed this season be better prepared to endure and enjoy throughout life.

Calling Dr. Love

Where would we be without love? The world's population would certainly slack off a bit, if you know what I mean. But I'm talking more about a certain kind of emotional love--the kind with shy, sideways glances, secrets told to best friends, and getting in trouble for kissing in the halls. It's a springtime kind of love that you might fall into and out of once or twice a week--a love that you only seem to feel in your high school years.

Love has great therapeutic value, too. A boy- or girlfriend can really help cheer you up after that F-plus you got on your math test.

If you want to spice up your life a little, fall in love with someone who has captured the hearts of a few others, too. There is nothing like a good fist fight between two individuals who love the same person. Besides excitement for you, it provides good entertainment for the whold school at lunch. So you see, love is good for dramatic purposes also.

Whichever way you look at it, love is what our worlds revolve around. It's happy, sad, frustrating, and fun. But most of all, love is necessary. Our world would be a cold place without it.

Weather and Determination

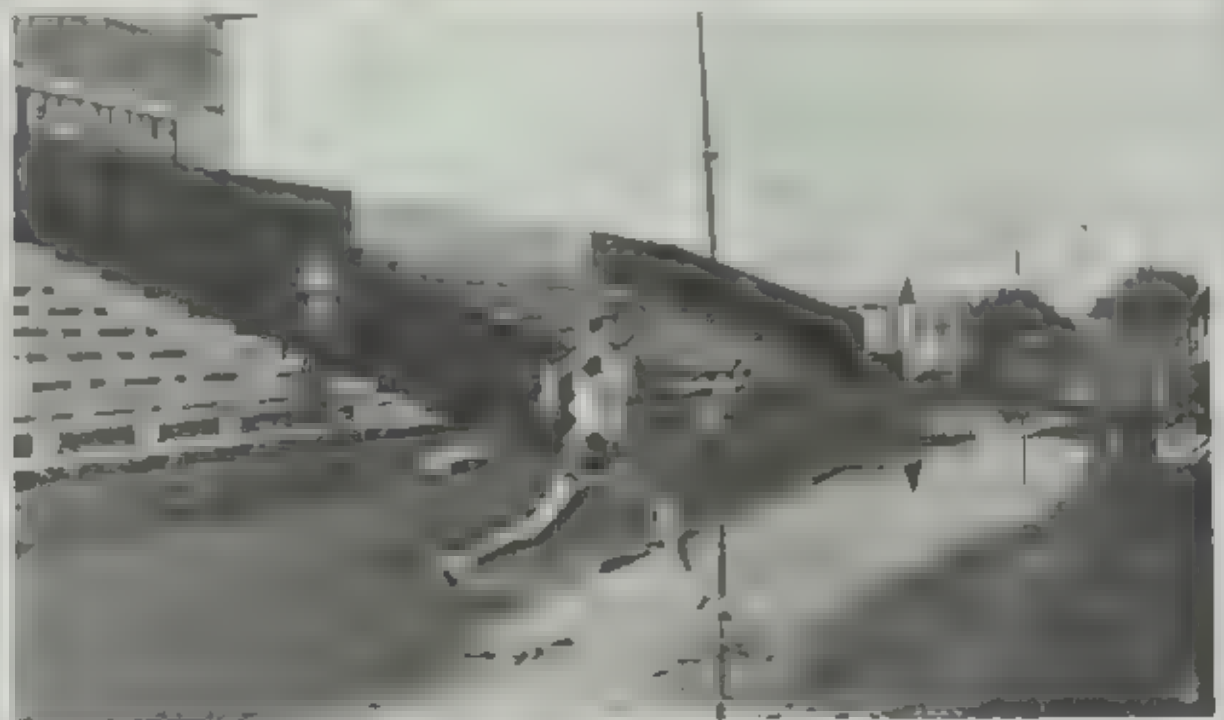

Once again the weather refuses to cooperate with our early season work outs. We find ourselves hoping for dry days full of sunshine, but most often we settle for the cold and rain. Still, despite the inclement conditions, our spirits run high and our determination won't be dampened. We anxiously await those sunny, fun filled days and the competition they offer.

Mr. Fickes was this years tennis coach. This is his second year of coaching the C.U.H.S. tennis team and he said that he has fully enjoyed being the tennis coach for the past two seasons. He predicted that the team would be very promising and they have been. He hopes each player had as much fun as he had.

6. Is it that hard to believe?

Powderpuff has always been a fun and rather crazy event and this year was no exception. Between the coaches shouting instructions and the team members screaming "kill her!" the game proved to be exciting.

It is common knowledge that the rivalry between the Senior "Women" and the Junior "Girls" is a deep and bitter one. Fortunately only one player, Jami Kerr, came out with a broken finger. Occasionally, when tempers flared up, people got their hair pulled.

With the final score thirty-eight to zero, the Senior "Women" won the game. It was a lot of fun for both the spectators to watch and the participants to play. Congratulations teams for a very successful game!

Friday 13th Home coming 1987

It was Fri. the 13th and the long awaited Cardinal Basketball Homecoming had finally arrived. Jason would come the cave this evening but tonight he would be wearing a cardinal uniform. The game pitted the undefeated, and 5th ranked team in the state, Colusa Redskins 19-0 vs the Corning Cardinals 13-6. Corning came from a 5 point deficit with 5:31 remaining, outscoring Colusa 13-4, to come away with a thrilling 64-60 victory. Basketball wasn't the only activity of the night. During halftime of the Var. game homecoming queen, Crystal Spaletta, was crowned by honorary captains Paul Lequia and Erick Henry.

1. The queen and her court stand tall in the cave.
2. The card defense is all over the helpless redskins.
3. Doesn't look good for the Cards.
4. The final score tells the story.

1986-1987 Corning High reestablished a Theatre Arts Class as well as the Drama Club. The Theatre Arts class studies history of various theatres, lighting techniques, set design, make-up, properties and costuming, as well as performing before audiences. These studies culminated with the public performance of "Absolutely Murder" on April 23rd and 24th, in the L.D.S. Auditorium across the street from the high school. Approximately 35 Theatre Arts and Drama students participated in making the performance a reality.

Duffers & Scientists

Two of the most prestigious organizations on campus this year were the Science Club and Golf Club. The Science club, led by adviser Lynn Gould, president Kevin Molina, vice-president Joe Antonucci, and secretary-treasurer Darrell Costedo, went on many exciting adventures. They participated in many field trips that proved to be great fun. Mr. Hawkey's Golf Club was a second year organization at Corning High. The club consisted of everyone from duffers to seasoned veterans. They put in many hours of practice and someday hope to have a team to compete with other schools.

1. Science Club members Kenny Gleason and Erick Henry scale a mountain looking for rare minerals.
2. The Golf Club grows almost daily with interested beginners.
3. Posing for a picture, the Science club prepares for another exciting experiment.

Senior Favorites

These are the pick of the litter, the cream of the crop--these people are the ones chosen by the Seniors of 1987 as having the "best" or "most" of certain qualities. Each pair represents part of the collective character of the Class of '87

1. You can tell by where KENNY GLEASON and CHRISTIE SUTFIN already are in life that they are MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED.
2. The MOST HUMEROUS people you'll ever see are SHERRI MESSMER and RAY ESPARZA.

3. DON DELERAY and CARMIE KELLY were really cool about posing for this photo, because they have the BEST PERSONALITY.
4. JEFF SMITH and CRYSTAL SPALETTA--all this and brains too! They're BEST ALL AROUND.
5. We should call MICHELLE PETON "second most bashful," because her partner, SAUL RODRIGUEZ, couldn't even be caught on camera.

1. BARBARA BETTENCOURT and DAVID GIRDLER use their MOST TALENTED qualities to get a perfect tone from a finely tuned instrument.

2. All this and brains too? The BEST BUILT people around CUHS are NANCY RAY and CODY McCOY.

3. Muscle-bound KEVIN MOLINA and super-fit TAWNIA POTTER challenge each other to see which one is REALLY the MOST ATHLETIC.

4. Whether at the books or at the keyboard, JOE ANTONUCCI and LAURA SMITH are always the MOST STUDIOUS.

5. Yes, they really do always wear clothes like this. DON MASSIE and ANGELA EVISON are the BEST DRESSED members of the class of '87.

6. Dedicated and helpful, CLASS MOM and DAD, NICKI SMITH and GREG HASSEY are always there to lend a hand.

7. We'd all like to look as good as BRAIN BERRY and ANGEL WILLIS, because these two are the BEST LOOKING.

8. Even on the rare occasion of a poorly attended athletic event, ERICK HENRY and AMBER WOODWARD cheer them on with the MOST SCHOOL SPIRIT they can.

1. Caught in the bushes again are those two animals, FLIRT AND WOLF, DARYL ROSE and CORRINA GARDERE.

2. LESLAY CHOY and STEVE GRACE have just the sort of off-the-wall individualism that makes them the MOST UNIQUE people in the class of '87.

Another exchange student at CUHS this year was BIELKA CERVANTES from ECUADOR, who arrived at the beginning of the second semester. We hope you've enjoyed your stay, Bielka!

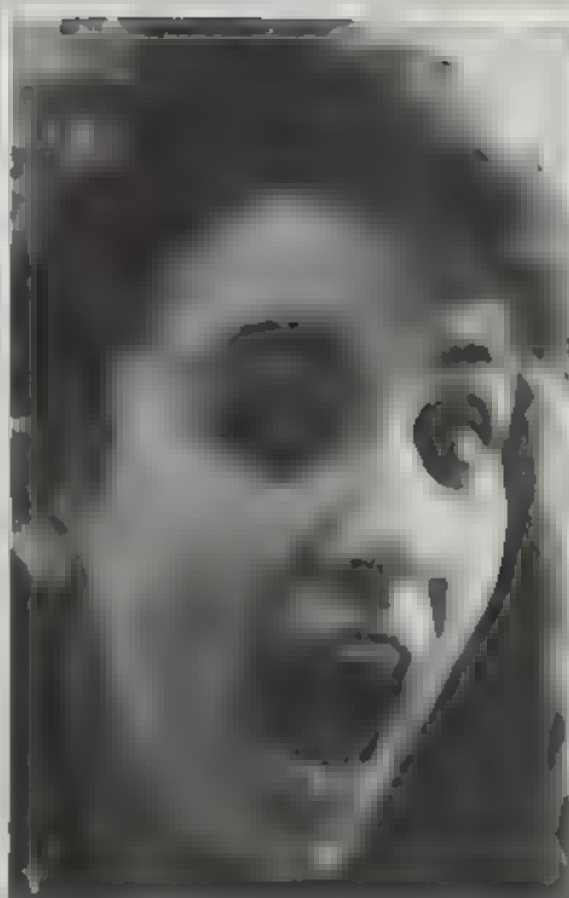

One of the strong points of the Class of 1987 was the often hysterical sense of humor it possessed. The Seniors could always be counted on to lighten things up a little in any situation, be it a party, a math class or a dull awards banquet. They definitely know how to enjoy life.

1. CRYSTAL SPALETTA looks like some funny senior has played a joke on HER.

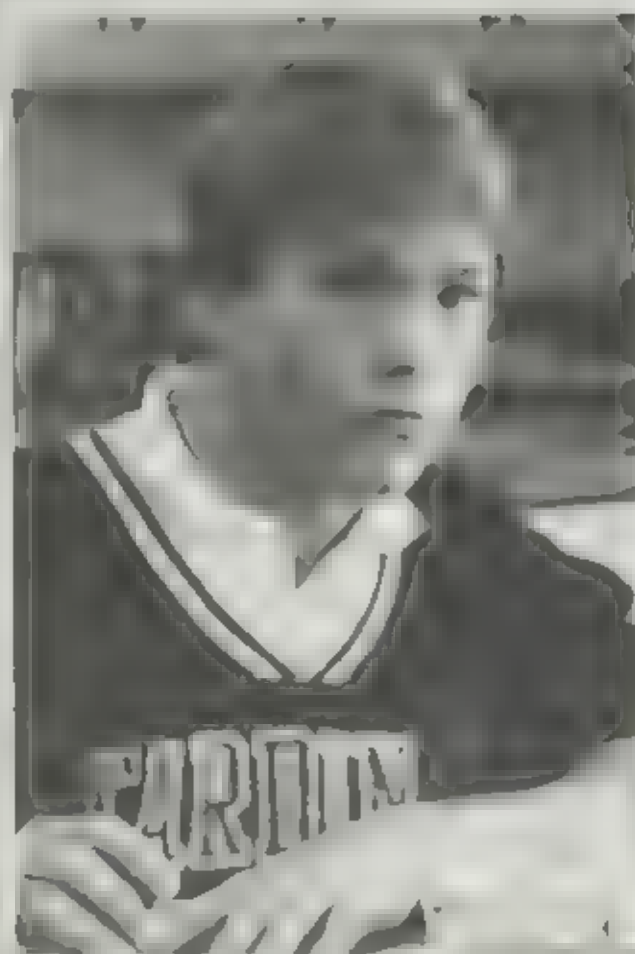

2. Watch out for the madman with the spray can, CODY McCOY.

3. Poking fun at themselves was a major source of humor, especially for those often game-saving bench riders, the famed WHITE SHIRTS. Here ERICK HENRY displays proper White Shirt attire.

4. The White Shirts are very proud of their name, and the other side of their trademark T-shirts describe their feelings for "that other color".

HISTORY

To the Class of 1987:

No matter where on earth you roam

Cardinal land will always be your home

This we say with a heart so true...

-C.U.H.S. will sincerely miss you

[illegible]

Well Manny,

I have been a Great Friend and

I had a BLAST AT THE TRAM LAST YEAR!
TAKE CARE OF YOURSELF AND KEEP IN

the money
I have a picture of you getting kicks
by making fun of a "cat" eye
I hope you are happy and well
Manny

Manny
I hope
you
happy

The money you made for the school
is a little bit of money
but you know
it's a lot of money for a school.

Manny,

It's been a great year and when I first got here in October

Sometime Randall Hale

Manny,

It's been great
you in accounting I learned nothing but hey you know that's OK! I think you're a great guy & I really like you a lot! How fun being out of school! Think of me next year when you're kicking
love

have a look

Manny,

this year
wouldn't have been the same w/out you. Stay out of trouble & stop being such a pervert. See ya sometime

Manny,

you're a heck of
a dude. have fun
this summer. you're so funny, But looks aren't everything.

Love,
Zara

See you around.

Manny.

You are a real funny dude & I hope you have fun summer partying which I know you will. Good luck, my friend
I love you. So Manny,
I hope you get laid soon. Hope you have a great girl life. Good luck ya, get?

Manny,

YR so funny. I am so glad that I met u & you better
keep in "touch" over summer! If not I'll kill u.

Love,
